Dear Bill,

Friday was an extraordinary day for me. It is always a privilege for me to visit NSA Headquarters, and each time I wish that there was more time for an extensive overview. On Friday, you really made up for lost time.

I came away with a very strong and supportive sense of what you are doing to support not only your mission but the entire Intelligence Community, and I am deeply impressed. I hope in my own work to be as supportive as I can possibly be to your vitally important and challenging undertakings.

Thanks for giving me such a real eye-opener and for sharing so much of your own time with me during a long and useful day.

With very warmest regards,

Sincerely,

William H. Webster
